Welcome to the 2016 Board: Sara Hall & Seth Frey

Sara Hall was born and raised just outside Columbus, Ohio. She attended Canal Winchester High School, and decided to temporarily cut ties with her home town and attend Centre College in Danville, Kentucky. Sara studied History and Psychology and joined Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority, played varsity softball, and traveled abroad to Vietnam, Cambodia, China, Jordan and Israel. Upon graduation, Sara attended law school at Florida Coastal School of Law in Jacksonville, Florida. Sara spent a semester in Sarajevo, Bosnia and Herzegovina as a legal fellow for the State Court of Bosnia and Herzegovina. While living in Sarajevo, Sara had the opportunity to travel extensively around Eastern Europe. Sara graduated from Florida Coastal with a certificate in International and Comparative Law and decided it was time to return home to Ohio, where she became a member of the Ohio Bar Association in November 2014.

Seth Frey is currently a finance adviser at Cardinal Health, which means he manages several multi-million dollar accounts and partners with several senior-level executives to drive cost savings and new sources of revenue. Before his time at Cardinal Health, Seth held finance roles at Nationwide Insurance, Limited Brands and Ohio Health. He holds a Bachelors in Finance and International Business from Slippery Rock University in Pennsylvania. Seth and his partner, have been involved with CIP since 2014, hosting two International Professionals in Residence (IPRs) from Sweden.

Former CIP Intern Published in The Elicitor

Congratulations to former CIP intern Bryan Rosenthal, who was published recently as a guest contributor in The Elicitor. Take a moment to read Bryan's essay on cooperation between the U.S. and Russia for solving problems in the Middle East, which can be found here. The Elicitor is a foreign policy blog focusing on relations with Russia, co-founded by another former CIP intern, Peter Marzalik.

Congratulations to both Bryan and Peter for their continued success!
